LAWRENCE SIZES UP POLITICAL SITUATION IN THE NORTHWEST; MINNESOTA IS FOR HARDING

Says Germans Are Bitter Against Wilson Because of His War Record.

THIRD PARTY FAILS.

Scandinavians Impressed by Pacifist Doctrine—Only Question Is Plurality.

Below is the first of a series of despatches from David Lawrence, The Evening World's special correspondent, to be published daily during September and October, giving an analysis of political sentiment in all Northern and Western States, to be followed by a detailed forecast of the Presidential election.

By David Lawrence.
Special Correspondent of The Evening World.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 10 (Copyright, 1920).—Gov. Cox has gone West; Senator Harding has gone back to Marion. The East, like the South, is more or less set in its political ways. If, therefore, there is a chance for an upset, as occurred in 1916, the West would be likely to exhibit the first symptoms. Also, distances are great in the Western country and the number of voters is relatively small, so the trend can be more definitely assessed west of the Mississippi River during September than it can east of that line. For the Eastern States are populous, and sometimes a drift sets in about the middle of October that changes the aspect of political things quite materially.

Besides, Gov. Cox is just now invading the West and the writer has determined to trail the Democratic nominee and judge, if possible, how much headway he makes in this Western country. Not much can be gotten by merely watching the crowds as they are thrilled by oratorical efforts and a pleasing personality. More can be gained by talking a day or two afterwards with men and women of all walks of life, business men, large and small, laborers, farmers, political workers and newspaper men of both Republican and Democratic affiliation.

WILL MAKE STUDY OF EVERY WESTERN STATE.

So the writer will spend the remainder of September studying every Western State and will begin about the first week in October to analyze conditions in Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and the Atlantic seaboard where changes, if they do come, occur in the last moments of the campaign and where Senator Harding and Gov. Cox will be found at that time working to

OUIMET AND EVANS LEAD IN 1ST ROUND OF SEMI FINALS

Boston Golfer Gets By Bobby Jones; at Finish Is 3 Holes Ahead.

"CHICK" NIPS ALLIS.

Squeezes Out a Two Lead in the Eighteenth When Ned Fails to Score.

By William Abbott.

Special Staff Correspondent to The Evening World.

ROSLYN, L. I., Sept. 10.—By a margin of three holes, Francis Ouimet of Boston led Bobby Jones, the boy wonder of the South, at the end of the first round in the 36-hole semi-finals for the National golf title today on the Engineers' links.

In the other contest Charles Evans of Chicago, after being matched stroke for stroke, finally flashed to the lead with victories on the seventeenth and eighteenth, and this just represented his two-hole lead over Ned Allis of Milwaukee.

Ouimet, open champion in 1913 and amateur title holder in 1914, was too steady for Jones, the eighteen-year-old Atlanta prodigy, who is ranked with America's three leading amateurs.

With frequent outbursts of brilliant Jones mixed in some damaging shots, especially at the uphill fifth where he sliced his drive so badly into underbrush that the ball was unplayable.

Ouimet, too, hit into trouble, but his recoveries were truly marvellous. The Southern wonder, struggling gamely, made effective inroads on Ouimet's big lead by winning the fifteenth on a forty-yard putt and taking the sixteenth where Ouimet missed his drive.

At the home green Bobby made a costly error when he missed an easy putt that would have given him the lead.

Ouimet's medal score was 74. With an approximate six on the fifth Jones returned a card of 73. Ouimet won seven holes. Jones captured four.

SEVERAL THOUSAND GOLF ENTHUSIASTS ON HAND.

The course was in excellent shape, rain last night putting the turf in prime condition for bold iron playing. Despite the early hour several thousands of golf enthusiasts were on hand. Hundreds of automobiles brought additional recruits, who quickly scrambled over the rolling links for vantage points.

Jones started poorly by losing the first two holes; an over-approach on the first and a missed putt on the second ended the game.

As young Bobby was to discover

SIXTY NEAR DEATH AS CAR LEAPS RAILS

Trolley Stops Within Two Inches of Edge 100 Feet Above Hoboken Street.

Sixty passengers of an elevated trolley car of the Public Service Corporation running from Jersey City to Hoboken narrowly escaped death today when the car left the tracks near Henderson Street Station, Hoboken. The elevated structure at this point is 100 feet above the street level.

The car ploughed through the ties to within two inches of the edge. The passengers screamed and some women became panic-stricken. They were assisted to the tracks and guided to the station.

The motorman said the rails were slippery from rain and the brakes were operating with difficulty. Traffic was delayed while a wrecking crew repaired the damage.
